

Post Your Project

- Name*

Unless you indicate otherwise, your name will not appear in this post.

First  Last

- Include My Name (optional)

- Please include my name in the post

- UCLA Extension Student ID*

Your Student ID is required to confirm your student status and eligibility to be included in the Find Your Crew page. However, this information will never be posted publicly. Please note that you must be a certificate student who is working on a project in a UCLA Extension Entertainment Studies or UCLA Extension Writers' Program screenwriting class. If you do not know your Student ID Number, please call the Entertainment Studies program Office: 310-825-9064

- Header*

Please describe in one line what your project role is and who you are looking for. Examples: Director Seeking Actors, Film Scoring Certificate student looking to interview a working director

- Body*

Please briefly describe your project and who you are looking to collaborate with.

- What class is this project for?*

This MUST be for a class.

- Email (or preferred contact method)*

- Deadline*

When would you like to hear back by?

▪ Terms of Agreement*

- By clicking this box, I hereby grant to The Regents of the University of California my permission to publicly post the information I have provided within the Post Your Project form on the UCLA Extension Entertainment Studies website. Furthermore, I waive and release The Regents of the University of California and its officers, agents, and employees from any claim or liability arising from or relating to the use of my name or other information provided in the Post Your Project form.

*If you wish to have your information removed from the UCLA Extension Entertainment Studies Find Your Crew Page, please e-mail Entertainment Studies at entertainmentstudies@uclaextension.edu

Submit